JOB'S DAUGHTERS INSTALL OFFICERS

Beautiful pink gladiolus decorated the Masonic hall on the evening of June 13 when officers of Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters, were installed. The past queens of Torrance formed the installing team. Miss Myrtle Perkins, newly elected queen, and Marcelle Kemball, retiring honored queen, carried bouquets of pink gladiolus, while the other officers carried pink sweet peas. DeMolays of Compton and Wilmington acted as escorts. Following the installation Miss Perkins presented Miss Kemball with past queen's jewel. Then dancing was enjoyed and light refreshments served.

The same council will act again this term. Mrs. May Sidebottom, being guardian; Willis Brooks, associate guardian; Mrs. Cecily Perkins, guardian recorder; Mrs. Margaret Fordlee, guardian musician, and Mrs. Hazel Ward, chairman sociability. The officers-elect installed were Miss Myrtle Perkins, honored queen; Miss Jane Roberts, senior princess; Ethel Ward, junior princess; Jean Smith, guide, and Edith Corbett, marshal. Appointive officers installed were Helen Hannebrink, outer guard; Ruth Wilhelm, inner guard; Beatrice Jackson, pianist; Norma Raprice, senior custodian; Dorothy Myers, junior custodian; Dolores Kings, recorder; Melvin Lockhart, treasurer; Merion Bay, chaplain; Mary Peckham, first messenger; Thelma Lockhart, second messenger; Dorothy McMillan, third messenger; Beatrice Huddleston, fourth messenger, and Mary Katherine Harris, fifth messenger. During the second meeting in August a large initiation will be held.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS TO ATTEND CHURCH SERVICE

Members of the Job's Daughters are requested to meet at Masonic Temple at 10 a. m. Sunday, June 28, when they will attend services at Lomita Presbyterian church, robed, and in a body. Transportation will be arranged.

O. E. S. OFFICERS HONOR OFFICERS

MISS GENSLER BECOMES BRIDE

Miss Margaret Gensler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gensler, became the bride Wednesday evening, June 24, of Christian J. Dobrick Jr. The ceremony took place at the First Evangelical Lutheran church in the presence of a host of friends and relatives. Rev. G. H. Schuster officiated. Preceding the ceremony Miss Gensler's Sunday school class sang "O Promise Me," by De Koven, accompanied at the piano by Miss Teala Billini, followed by a piano solo by Billini, "Nocturne," by Frederic Chopin, and a song, "Oh, Perfect Love," by Burleigh. The wedding procession then entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. Miss Gensler was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was beautifully attired in egg-shell white lace with a shower bouquet of coral gladiolus. Little Ruth Kerber, at flower girl, wore a frock of green organdie with a strewed rose petals before the procession. The groom was attended by his brother, George Dobrick. The ushers were William Dobrick, Louis Cramer and wedding Hemsath. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Earl's cafe for a large number of guests. Tom Ulrich's orchestra played for dancing until midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Dobrick then left for a short honeymoon and upon their return will make their home at 1904 Martina avenue.

Secret's Out As Higgins Weds

Theater Manager and Local Girl Are Married at Corona Tuesday

Hey! Hey! folks, here's news. Nobody knew when they saw Frank Higgins, manager of the Torrance Theater, going about attending to business as usual Tuesday morning, that he was carrying around with him a deep dark secret locked up in his manly chest.

But he was. And at 11 o'clock the secret was out. For at that hour Frank was standing before the Rev. R. W. Smith, of the First Methodist church of Corona, and with him was Miss Gladys Smith, of 2516 El Dorado street, Torrance. In a very few minutes Frank and Gladys were pronounced husband and wife and on their way to a mountain resort to spend their honeymoon.

The young couple will return to Torrance next week.
